

TOK Reading List for IB Class of 2019

Directions:

1. Form a TOK Book Club and choose a book from the 2018-19 Reading List.
2. You may form a book club with any senior TOK student. It does not have to be someone in your assigned TOK class. There must be at least two people in a book club.
3. Your club must meet four times. You may use class workshop time to complete this activity.
4. The first time you meet, choose your book, divide the readings into thirds, and establish reading deadlines and meeting dates. Turn your schedule into Dr. Pantano for book club approval.
5. On the other three meeting times, you will discuss the required guided questions. See book club guided question meeting sheet.
6. When you have completed your book and book club meetings, submit "3" audio, video, or written evidence of your book club meetings to receive credit for your engagement with the TOK reading list.
7. You will contract for your semester summative grade: 1 book plus satisfactory meeting evidence for a 70/C, 2 books plus satisfactory meeting evidence for B/85, 3 books plus satisfactory meeting evidence for A/100. If you keep on track with at least one book a month during the school year, you will be successful. Also, the books you read and meet about over the summer (you can skype and/or face time with IB friends, just make sure you record it) count toward your 2018-19 goal of 6 thought-provoking, exciting, and transformative book titles!
